
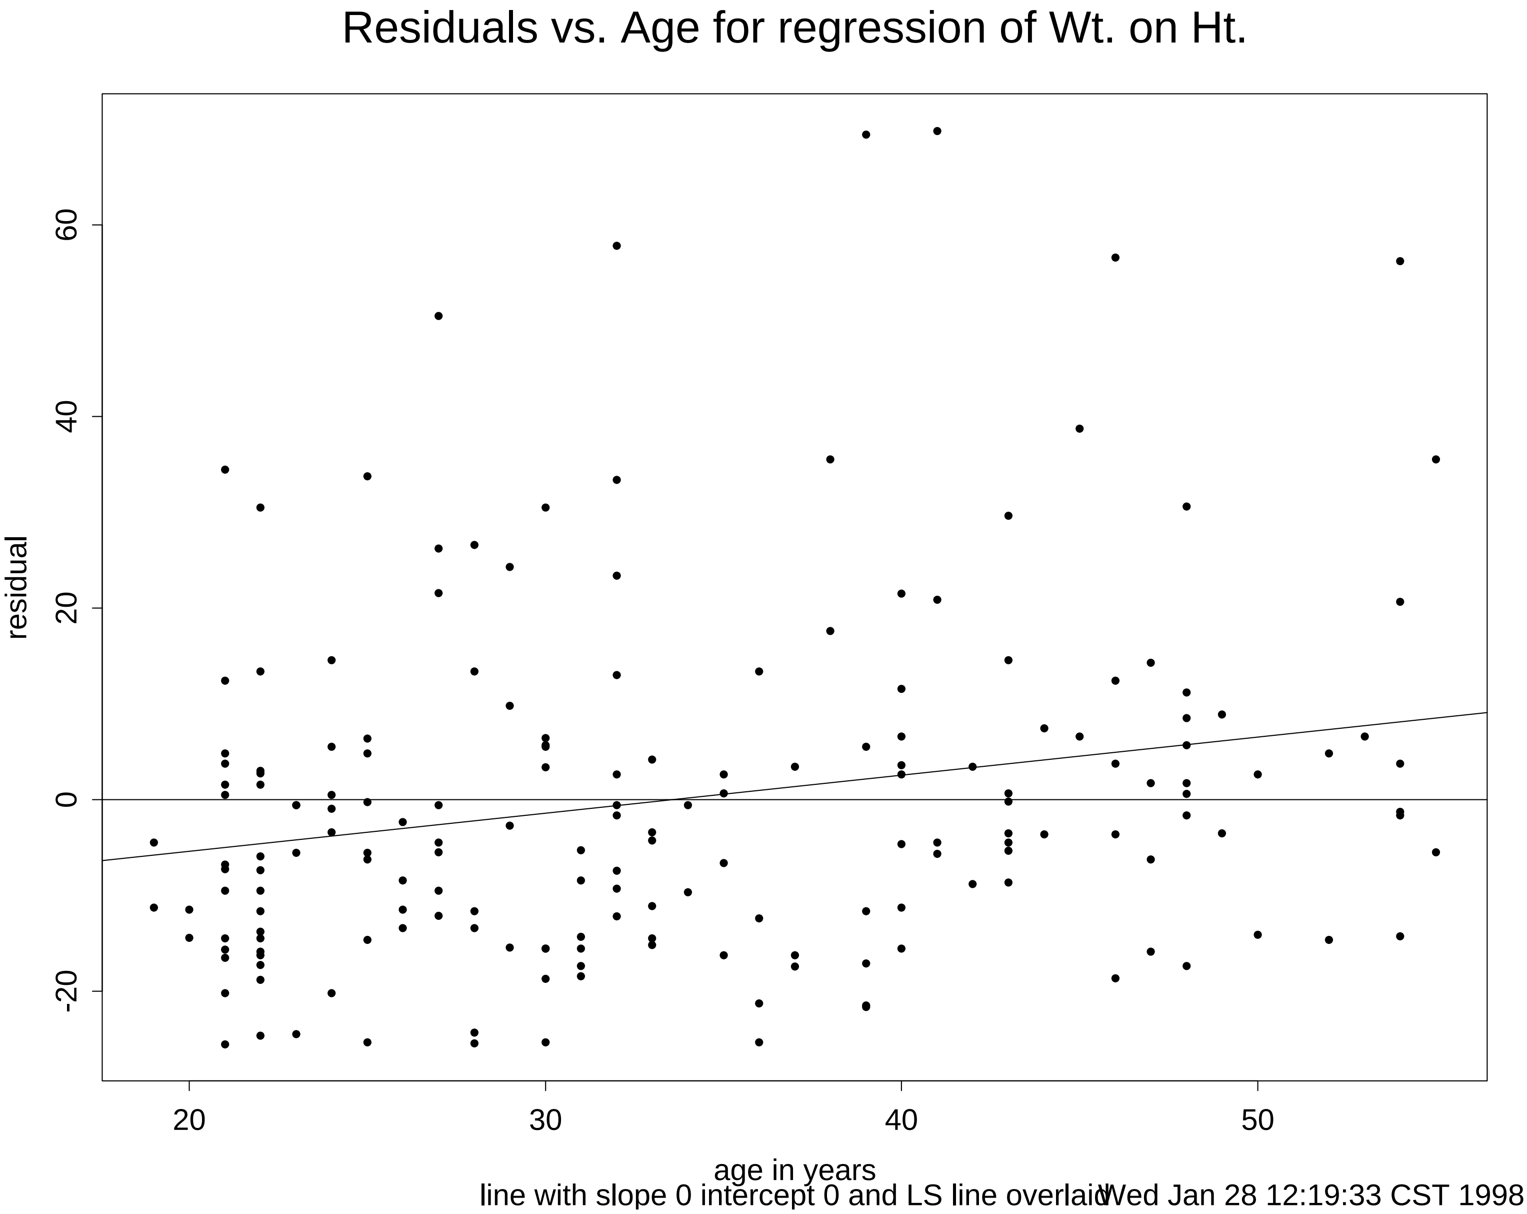

Figure 1: Third Figure in Lecture 8. Residuals from the Weight = b + a * Height regression plotted against age. The slanted line is the regression of these residuals on age, showing that age has some positive correlation with the residuals.