
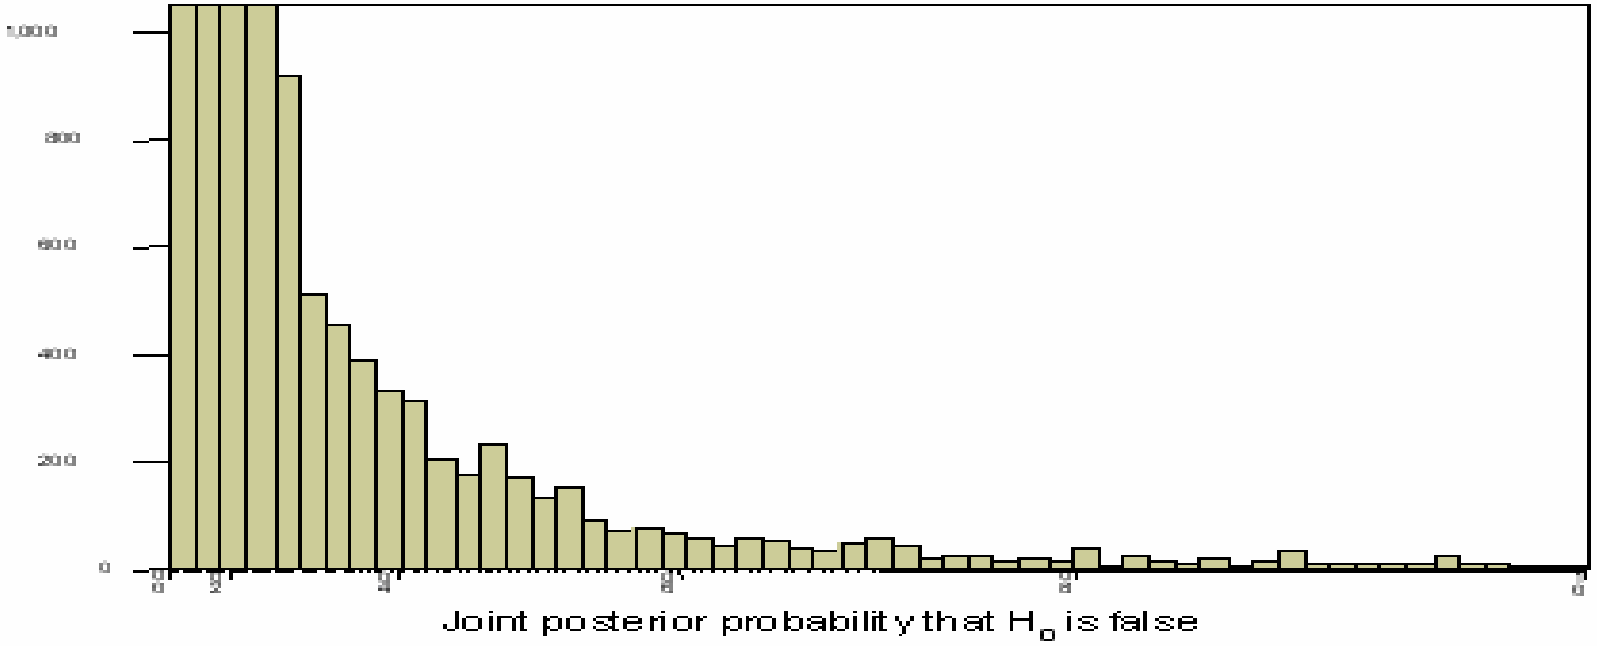

Figure 3. Implementation of *IUT*s via posterior probabilities by the mixture model. The height represents the frequency of the joint posterior probability that the compound null hypothesis is false.